

PANELISTS DEBATE

Vuk JEREMIĆ

Instead of asking all these questions, which I will have to leave for the next time, I will make a very quick poll of everybody at the table. I will ask you to give me a yes or no answer, although I know it is a very complex thing. In 2028, when we gather for the 21st World Policy Conference, will there be a single Korean state? I am not asking if you like it or why you think it is difficult to answer this question; I am just giving you an option to answer yes or no, starting with Mongolia.

Tsakhia ELBEGDORJ

No.

WANG Jisi

No.

Douglas PAAL

No.

YIM Sung-joon

No.

Yuichi HOSOYA

No.

Georgy TOLORAYA

No, of course not.

Vuk JEREMIĆ

That is a very decisive poll, and now I will give the audience a chance to ask questions.

Give me in a round of applause for our panellists. Thank you.
